

On and Ever Upward

Words: B. HARRIS
Epsilon

Music: E. H. KEIM
Gamma

Moderato

Hail, All Hail to the Red in the glow of the morn!
Hail, All Hail to the Red in the rose on the lea!

Hail, All Hail to the Black that with twi - light is born!
Hail, All Hail to the Black in the waves of the sea!

Hail — to the mean - ing of em - blems so dear!
Hail — to the blend - ing of sym - bols so true!

Hail, Hail to the Brothers — whose love is sin - cerel And Hail, Hail to the Message — that they bring to you! And a little slower

when in the winds — that blow from the West the ban - ner is lead - ing us on in our quest, We'll sing to the tune of fra - ter - ni - ty life, this cho - rus that binds in the heart of the strife.

poco rit.

On and ev - er on - ward, On to do the right,

On to win the Bat - tle, On to show our might,

Gai - ly we are march - ing, Hap - py as can be,

Guid - ing Phi Mu Al - pha, Our fra - ter - ni - ty.